> THE CHURCHES TO-DAY .- All the pulpits of the city will be filled today, as in the absence of regular ministers their places will be supplied. The pulpit of the First Baptist church, during Dr. Pritchard's prolonged absence from the city, has been most acceptably filled by Rev. Dr. Wingate, of Wake Forest College.

SOME TOBACO.-Mr. Chas. Beasley, Esq., of Egypt, Chatham county, under date of the 27th, sends us the following:

"Messrs. Editors: I see in the NEWS an occount bacco grown by Dr. Willis Lewis, the leaf being 20x 29 inches. My curiosity being raised, I measured some of mine, the first leaf I examined measuring 22 x 33. I think half of my crop will measure 18 x 28 inches. I top it at 12 to 16 leaves. Beat me If you can.' Next!

TEN YEARS TOO LATE.-He bagged five cabbages at the Market House yesterday morning, and paid for the same a $1 Confederate note. The days of the Confederacy having passed some time since, this was considered rather unfair, and a few hours later the negro who did the cabbaging was before His Honor Mayor Stronach, and made to bleed to the extent of $7.25. So much for carrying worthless money loose in your pocket.

MOVEMENTS OF COTTON IN RAL-EIGH.—Receipts this week 68 bales, market closing quiet at 13% to 13% for low middling. Receipts same week last year 280 bales, market then 15 cts. Receipts this week fall short of receipts same week last year 212 bales. Receipts to date this year 35,032 bales; Receipts to same date last year 27,410, making the receipts this year exceed receipts to same date last year 8,622 bales.

THE "PIN-BACKS" PROSCRIBED. -Our telegrams yesterday morning ahnounces an important fact to the ladies of the present age. These darlings of creation doubtless imagined all the newspaper hits at the present "pin-back" skirts as the idle talk of local hunters; but what must they think of the edict that has gone forth from a Catholic church in Canada to the effect that no lady wearing "low neck dresses or pin-back skirts" shall commune in that church. What a monster that Priest must be, and with what pleasure would we wring his neck, just for the sake of the dear creatures whom he thus wantonly as-sails. THE FAIR.-There will be, from indications, the greatest display of blooded horses, cattle and sheep at the Fair in October that we have ever had in this State. Such an opportunity may not occur again for years for our people to see such a variety of fine stock as will then be exhibited, and the purses offered for racing are such as to render it certain that we will have the finest trotting and running races ever witnessed in North Carolina. The citizens of Raleigh will offer a purse of $500 independent of the Society. The premiums offered farmers are unusually liberal, which will doubtless create every conceivable competition, we are glad to know that our people are going to lay aside their troubles for awhile and meet to exchange

It takes a woman to repulse a travelling agent sometimes. In a neighboring village the other day, a man called on Mr. C. at his place of busine's, and wanted to sell him a parlor organ. Mr. C. not wishing to buy, to get rid of him, referred him to his wife. On the man's making his business known to the lady, she asked him if Mr. C. sent him to her. "Yes ma'am,", he replied, "Well, sir," said Mrs. C., "you just go back and tell him that until he can furnish me with something besides mackerel to eat, I can make all the music that is necessary around this house.'

REMOVED TO THOMASVILLE .- Mr. J. H. Mills, who has been so long a resident of this city, and who has labored so zealously in the foundation of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, has removed his family to Thomasville, on the line of the North Carolina Road, where he intends, we understand, opening a male school in the no distant future. He will remain for the present Superintendent of the Orphan Asylum. Thomasville has gained in Mr. Mills a most valnable citizen and Raleigh has lost a most excellent gentleman from its midst. We wish him success where-ever he may make his home. Thomasville is a town of no mean proportions. It contains over 800 inhabitants, has in its midst the extensive shoe factory of Messrs. Leach & Co., and has one of the best female college buildings in the State, Prof. Reinhardt having purchased them cultural Report shows very good corn, potatoes and tobacco, and ast year, and is, we are glad to know meeting with good success in reviving an institution once second to none other of the character in the State.

"A THING OF BEAUTY IS A JOY FOREVER," or should be. So thought we yesterday, as a boquet of beautiful variegated dahlias, most artistically arranged, the boquet being some two feet square, was brought into our office, with the message from the fair donor that "the grass-widowers of the NEWS office should not be slighted, while the worthy President of the State National Bank and the urbane proprietor of the Yarboro were allowed to bask in the loveliness of the boquets that had graced their desks for the past week." We thank thee, good lady, for the kind thought which prompted this acceptable gift, that now adorns the centre table of our sanctum, making us feel that we could belong to the grass-widower's association yet a little while longer only to be thus remembered. But, hist-not a word of this to the West, or our present "freedom" will cease to exist before the beauty of the flowers shall have departed.

The dahlias were grown in the flower garden of Mr. C. B. Fairchild. just east of Raleigh, being the most beautiful specimens of this flower we have ever seen.

RALEIGH AS SEEN BY A BROTHER EDITOR.-Friend Ellis, of the Toisnot Transcript, was in the city a few days since, and here is what he has to say of Raleigh. We thank him for his compliment to the NEWS:

Our visit to the Oak City last week was one of business and not of pleasure. The improvements at the Capital have been great for the last few years, and still they go on. The new Post Office on Main street will add greatly to the beauties of the city, and when finished will be a contradiction to the general belief that the old North State does not abound in a superior granite, in whiteness nearly equal to marble. While in Raleigh we stopped at the Yarborough House, which seems to be the home of all who visit the city, and all seem to be perfectly at home. We have often heard Blacknall called the Prince of Landlords-now we know he is entitled to that title. Let one travel around and see the differ ence between a gonuine landlord and a mere pretender and they will agree with us. It is useless for us to advise our friends to stop at the Yarborough as they all do it.

At night we visited the News office and found everything and every body head over heels at work. The News Publishing Co. has recently moved into its new building, and from all appearances seems to ing a prosperous business. The pa-per is the leading Conservative par er in the State, and has, we believe, much the largest circulation. Col. Cameron, its political Editor, is one of the best writers we know of. His articles are always sharp and to the point, and show a statesman-like beauty. Our friends who prefer a a paper at the Capital to the Trans cript cannot do better than take the Daily or Weekly News. More of Raleigh hereafter.

THE HAYWOOD HOMICIDE.-We subjoin from the Wilmington Star what we deem a correct version of unfortunate affair. From what we have heard of the young gentleman, we are satisfied he did not resort to the use of the deadly weapon without greater provocation offered than mere words. There is perhaps not a more amiable young man in the State, and he is an examplary member of the church. He and his family have our deepest sympathies. Says the Star:

young gentleman from this city to his parents, gives some additional particulars of the recent homicide in Haywood county, and mentions one fact that will be especially gratifying to the many friends and relatives of Tommie Strange.

After giving some details substan-

A letter from Ashville, written by tially the same as those already printed in the Star, the writer of the letter who obtoined his information from the Deputy Sheriff of Haywood county, refers to the accident to the hack and states that Tommie Strange was trying to reason with Murray, the driver, and from this the altercation followed that culminated in the shooting of Murray. No one, it is said by the Deputy Sheriff, who was present at the Coroner's inquest, witnessed the shooting; and Tommie started on the examination before the Coroner, that he shot Murray in self-defence.

We expressed the opinion yesterday that there must have been greater provocation given than mere words, however angry, and we are now con-vinced that such was the case. Those who know Tommie Strange will not hesitate to accept his statement as true, especially when it is remembered that there were no witnesses of the affair, and he was not compelled to make any statement at all unless he saw fit t · do so.

THE AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT

REPORT.—Of the crops for August, of which we have published a summary, shows that we are not so badly off after all. The imaginative newspa-per reports of the West and the speculators have done the best they could this season to ruin the crops—the el-ements, between a cold late spring, a subsequent drouth and storm and flood during the Summer, giving ample opportunity for this. At least a dozen times this year the growing crops have been on the point of annihilation. The succession of misfortunes from the weather, which were ably reinforced by the grasshopper, potato bug, clinch bug and army worm, whilst among them all clattered an occasional hail storm. have contributed in turn to make the farmer miserable. But it seems at last that his precious crops, except in some isolated instances, have survived all these perils, though they still have to undergo an ordeal of frosts, of which careful observers at outlying posts are already emouneing the advance guard. The Agriits anneuncement wheat is uncertain, the unerring indication of a halt in the advancing prices of wheat demonstrates that the crop is after all not in so bad a condition. The lesson taught by this season shows plainly that we cannot be too cautious in accepting rumors of great damage to crops. The peach crop, which was reported as almost annihilated by the cold spring weather when the trees were in blossom has turned out the most plentiful crop ever produced, and the same may probably be the case with the rumor-ruined tobacco. It is so easy to exaggerate calamities that almos very one falls into the habit, and this may be the cause of much of the magnified crop-injury reports that find their way into the newspapers. The country, happily, is much better off in respect to its crops than any one expected a short time ago, and this will give an alleviation from the business stagnation that has pressed so heavily. TO MAKE OLD HORSES APPEAR WELL.—The horse is often prevented from throwing his weight into the collar by a tight check-rein-a useess and painful encumberance, troduced by vanity, and retained by thoughtlessness amounting to cruelty. Ask horse-keepers why they use t, and hardly any two of them will give the same answer, though it is supposed by them to be a great safeguard against stumbling. The real object with which it was introduced was to make every horse to which t was applied, however weak or old or poor, assume the lofty carriage of the thorough-bred horse; and the tos-sing of the head, the foaming at the nouth, and the restless agitation of the body (mute, but expressive signs of pain and suffering) came, in a litle while, not only to be disregarded, but even looked at with approbation. Fortunately, this vitiated taste is rapidly going out of fashion as better inormation is diffused. Few of the London cab-drivers use check-reins. knowing them to be inconsistent with proper work; and when one is observed, it will invariably be found to be on some poor animal whose wearied and haggard appearance is attempted to be disguised by this implement of torture.- English Paper.

A BROOKLYN WIDOW'S BLASTED AFFECTIONS.—Abraham Hyman, a wealthy citizen of Rhode Island became acquainted with a beautiful Brooklyn widow, and after a short courtship promised, as alleged, to The wedding was fixed marry her. for the 15th of August inst., and he made her a present of a diamond ring, diamond earrings and a pair of chain bracelets. He subsequently returned to Rhode Island. On the 14th inst. he wrote the widow, Mrs. Regina Jacobs, saying that he would be obliged to postpone the wedding. Monday Mrs. Jacobs began a suit against Mr. Hyman for promise, claiming $5,000 damages, and he was arrested in New York just as he was about to go on board the cars for his home. He was very indignant, but was compelled to go to jail, and on Tuesday his bail was fixed at $2,000.

A MATRIMONIAL HORROR Brutal Attempt to Kill a Wife by Starving Her to Death.

A very mysterious case has just come to light in the town of Boonon, N. J., which, it is asserted, exhibits one of the most brutal and fiendish cases of barbarity that has occurred for years in the vicinity of New York. It appears that one Philip Cook. a carpenter by trade. residing in the above place, has for a long time lived on unhappy terms with his wife. It is moreover alleged that of late he has been on terms of improper intimacy with another woman, and he sought to get clear of his wife by starving her to death.
To accomplish this purpose he is alleged to have locked her up in an upper room in the building, occupied as the family residence, and has there kept her confined for nearly three weeks. Cook has three children, and the sudden disappearance of the mother led several of the neighoors to inquire as to her whereabouts. The children finally told them that their mother was kept locked up in a room by their father. Cook a room by their father. Cook was then asked as to the whereabouts of his wife, when he stated that she was sick. This did not satisfy some of the citizens, so on Thursday evening about twenty of them forced their way into Cook's house, and, to their great astonishment, found Mrs. Cook ying in an insensible condition on a bare floor. They removed her to an adjoining room and sent for a physician, but as yet she has been in such a condition that but little hopes are entertained for her recovery. has been unable to make a clear tatement of the brutal treatment she has received. Cook has, therefore, been arrested and committed to the county jail, without bail, to await the recovery or death of his wife.

Again the old cry is raised that Spain is preparing to send ten thousand veteran troops to Cuba, but from all accounts the patriots do not pay the slightest regard to the threat The fact is "that short work has been made of the rebels" so often by these telegraphic Spanish armies that the matter has come to be regarded as a periodical joke. The latest and most reliable advices from Diaz, the Cuban leader, are on the contrary very encouraging for the cause. He has recently taken pos-session of several large estates in a session of several large estates in a portion of the Island that gives him command of immense resources, and will place any force that may be sent against him at great disadvantage.

Mr. Nathan Appleton protests against the execution of Jesse Pomeroy, and thinks that his life should be carefully preserved for the study of scientists and mediums. This is very high ground to put it on, and all sounds very nice, but most people think that the gentle Jesse dead and on the dissecting table would better subserve both the ends of science and of justice.

It is a salesman who never aleeps and is never weary; who goes after business early and late; who accosts the merchant in his store, the scholar in his study, the lawver in his office, the lady in her home, the traveler in the car or boat; a salesman who no purchaser can avoid, who can be in a thousand places at once and speak to thousands of people daily, saying to each one the best thing in the best manner. A good advertisement insures a business connection on the most permanent and independent basis, and is in a certain sense, a guarantee to the customer of fair and moderate prite.

Or the eighteen States which hold general elections this fall it is safe to estimate that eleven will speak for Democracy.

THE colored Convention of the negroes of Virginia, which was held in Richmond last week, accomplished nothing of any moment. It proved a most excellent field, however, for wrangling, and this we are told the colored brethren did to their heart's content.

So LARGE are the crowds that attend Mr. Beecher's meetings at Twin Mountain House that it has been found necessary to provide a tent for their accommodation. Last Sunday the people flocked to hear him from the whole surrounding

An Illinois judge has lately decided that teachers and directors cannot expel a pupil from the publie schools on account of absence. on the ground that a child does not become the creature or the slave of teachers by being enrolled, the parents having the right to send their children to school only as they can spare them from home.

THE Wilmington Journal strongly opposes the removal of Gov. Holden's disabilities. It says that if he was guilty of the high crimes charged upon him when impeached, he is no less guilty now, and that the people of North Carolina do not wish this man, who could consent "to arrest, imprison and loose" her best citizens, to be again turned loose to commit the same acts should power be again placed in his hands. The Southern Home is equally as strong in its opposition to this removal.

CALIFORNIA is the first of the States in the fall elections. A Governor and entire State ticket will be chosen on Wednesday next. Four tickets are in the field-Republican, Democrat, Independent and Temperance. The Independent movement, which succeeded in winning last year, under Booth's brilliant leadership, is on the ebb, and stands no chance of success. Unless all appearances mislead, there is every reason to believe that California will head the Democratic column for 1875.

ALLUDING to the recent address of Gov. Vance before the Southern Historical Society, in which he showed from the Adjutant General's books that North Carolina furnished more than a sixth of all the Confederate troops, when one tenth would have been her share, the Charleston News and Courier says :

This is a record of which the "Old North State" may well be proud. No troops did better service than the North Carolinians, and strangely lic praise. Gov. Vance will cure this if he can, and the old "rebs" will help him to do it.

A PHILADELPHIA correspondent of the New York Tribune says there is danger that the United States will be thinly represented at the centernial exhibition. Up to this time the number of applications has not reached 3,500, not one-half that will be required to fill the assigned limit. Several States and Territories are as yet wholly unrepresented, and there are others that give no promise of making anything approaching a satisfactory exhibit of their industries and natural products. The opinion is expressed that there will be a great rush of applicants as soon as a day is fixed for closing the books, but that day cannot be much longer postponed.

THE whole Democratic press of the State unite in denouncing the conduct of Governor Brogden, in delaying the election in Orange to fill the vacancy occasioned in the Constitutional Convention by the death of Gov. Graham, as an unfair and unjust piece of partizanship .-This act will be remembered against he may live.

THE great question which agitates the public mind in Arkansas just at present is whether the last syllable of the State name shall be pronounced "saw" or "sass;" and the prospect is that the next political contest instead of being between parties as now constituted will be between the "saws" and the "sassies." The Camden Beacon takes open and determined ground in favor of "saw," and insists that if this pronunciation can be secured in no other way the spelling should be made to correspond with it.

The slogan of the Greensboro New North State is "let none but true Republicans be put on guard!" and says the party of the State is looking anxiously for a sweeping change in the offices about Raleigh. Collectors of Internal Revenue and others having control of patronage will also be held to a strict accountability, and "they cannot and will not be regarded as true friends of the Republican party if they put Democrats in positions that should be filled by Republicans." Of course Gov. Brogden will again obey the behests of his party, and apply the Radical guillotine to all office-holders who are not truly

"loil."

It is a matter of dispute as to which is the most complete work of nature, in its way-the American fool or the English fool, but the Englishman seems to be a little ahead for the prosent. It isn't so much romance and Indian stories with him. It is "quality." The following story of a far-seeing, but poverty-stricken English lord, has come out : "It is his custom to take a house, have it furnished elegantly by a confiding tradesman, and then, occupying it for a short time, dispose of the lease to some wealthy plebian who is willing to pay handsomely for living in a house which has been occupied, and as handsomely for using the furniture which has been used by a lord. His lordship is compelled to do a good deal of moving under this arrange- obliged to suspend payment on acment, but it enables him to live genteelly, and suits all the parties.'

A COUNTRYMAN, after hearing Judge Melton's speech in the case of Parker, the thievish Treasurer of South Carolina, was heard to soliloquize after this fashion: "Well, well, I reckon as how I've hearn one more speech before I die. That last prayer was beautiful. When he put up his hand-not before his face, like John Morrisey, but above his head, like Solomon-and shouted, "May God save the State of South Carolina!" I thought it ought to make the angels sing right then, but it didn't. I just tell you fellowsufferers, when such a man puts up his hands in sich a way, and prays so heavy 'bout sich things, the people had better stand back, for de Lord is coming down on your side, and we are gwine to clean 'em out anyheow."

ANOTHER "RICHMOND" IN THE FIELD.

The following "civil-rights and intermarriage" letter is the production of the negro Alick Craig, of Chapel Hill, to which we referred a couple of days since :

CHAPEL HILL, Aug. 20, 1875. As there is a vacancy in the Convention, caused by the death of Mr. Graham, and as, I suppose, there will be a member to elect soon to fill said vacancy from this county, I announce myself as a candidate to fill the vacancy. I am a colored man, and I appeal to the colored men of Orange to rally to my support. We, the colored people of this county, have been badly treated by our white Re-publican friends, and I think it time for us to share some of the offices. The way we have been treated by our white brethren reminds me of a transaction which happened in Alabama some time ago between a white man and a colored man in the division of a crop. Some one asked the colored ow they divided? He scratched his head and said, he didn't hardly know; then the white man took out his pencil, and began by saying a nought is a nought a figure is a figure, all for the white man and none for the nigger; so it is with the white man-he gets the office and we do the voting. I am out, and out in favor of Civil Rights and for mixed schools and colleges, and am also in favor, (if elected), of altering the Constitution so that the whites and blacks can intermarry, as well as have all other rights that the white people enjoy; and now I call upon my party friends to rally to my sup-

THE FAILURE OF STIRLING, AH-RENS & Co.—The Baltimore Gazette of Friday says of the heavy failure of this house in that city on Thursday

The suspension of the house of Stirling, Ahrens & Co., which was announced at the close of business yesterday, created intense excitement commercial circles. The disastrous event was altogether unexpectd, and there had been no indication during the day that the firm would suspend, and the first intimation came through the banks where the paper of the house had been suffered o go to protest. When the rumors that circulated rapidly had been fully verified by careful inquiry, the exrealized and the subject was anxiously discussed until the close of the day in the various counting-houses.

Mr. Adolph Abrens, one of the firm, in reponse to inquiries, said: "Stirling, Ahrens & Co. have been stagnation in business throughout the country, and the consequent shrinkage in the value of molasses and sugars. Our total liabilities are about $2,000,000. We hope and believe that with careful and judicious management of assets, which largely consist of real estate, that our creditors will be paid in full. It is impossible at present to give a detailed statement of assets and liabilities. It will, however, be done as soon as ircumstances will permit. It was ascertained from other sources that no meeting of creditors has yet been called, sufficient time not having elapsed for such action.

Mrs. Lincoln's Reason not Restor-

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—The attempts on the part of a newspaper in this city to work up a sensation in regard to Mrs. Lincoln is received with but little favor by the better class of citizens. The allegation that she is perectly sane, and that her imprisonment at Batavia is consequently an outrage, is not borne out by the facts. and is known to be atterly untrue by those who are familiar with the cir cumstances. At the time she was placed in the institution at Batavia her insanity was very marked, though as is usually the case, it was not apparent at all times. Since she has been under treatment she has shown some improvement, and it is thought propable that she will be allowed to visit her sister at Springfield. Like all insane persons, she is very certain that she is in full possession of her reason, and letters written by her to meddlesome persons in this city have led to the report that she is improperly restrained of her liberty.

Mr. Robert Lincoln, it is said, has been unremitting in his attentions to his mother, and no one who knows the character of the man would for a moment accuse him of acting wrong-

EXTRAORDINARY CHESS PLAY-ING.— Mr. William H. Muny, of Seneca Falls, N. Y., recently played at that place twenty-four games of chess at one time against twentyfour different players, without sight of men or boards. The games were played at the residence of Judge Josiah T. Miller, the player meanwhile sitting on the stoop, chatting and answering questions about the games. This is eleven more games han were ever attempted at one time before. A dispute arose about the position of the places in two of the games, and Mr. Mundy stood up before the guests and called off all the moves that had been made in the games and the position of the pieces on the boards. He had pre played six games at once in Hudson Y., and again in Geneva, N. Y. When fourteen years old he beat some of the best players then living, but has played little since. Mr. Mundy is at present in this city.— New York Evening Post.

Two of the monkeys at the Jardin des Plantes, at Paris, fought a duel with knives the other day. By some accident two large clasp knives were left by one of the keepers in the cage of the animals, and no sooner had they been perceived than two of the argest monkeys seized them, opened the blades, and fell upon each other like a pair of men. One of them was killed at the first pass, whilst his adversary had one of his paws nearly cut off. Quite Darwinian.

To prevent her lover from "going back," on his promise, she now al-ways introduces him to her friends as my intended husband." Hon. R. M. T. Hunter is acting State Treasurer of Virginia, on a salary of $2,000. He appropriates part of it to pay his creditors, and lives on the balance. Jay Cooke says such an example is enough to demoralize a republic twice the size of this one.

A little girl in Van Buren county, Iowa died last week after an illne nearly six months. During the last two months she ate nothing and took no medicine, yet neither the functions of respiration, circulation, nor colorification were changed in the least until a few hours before her death.

The New Orleans Times accounts for the great scarcity of young men at most of the fashionable wateringplaces. The more industrious of the men are forced to toil at home to support the extravagance of female relatives abroad.

The aggregate is $112,000,000, which s pretty well for a fortnight's operation. This is one form of expansicn

ANOTHER BALLOONING ACCIDENT -A ballooning accident somewhat similar to that which befell Donaldson and his companion, though with a more fortunate ending, occurred near Lancaster, England, recently. The aeronaut having ascended just before a terrific storm broke over the district, was car. ied into the storm cloud, and was unable to rise above it. He then attempted to descend, but the balloon was struck by lightning and torn to pieces, and the eronaut, falling from a considerable height, was seriously, but not fatally injured.

LENIENT TREATMNET OF COLONEL Baker.—The London correspon-dent of the new York Tribune complains that Col. Baker of the English army, who was recently convicted of an outrageous assault on a young lady in a railway carriage, and sentenced to twelve months imprisonment and a fine of £300 is treated with marked and undeserved leniency. It is claimed that Horse-monger jail is turned into a barracks for Col. Baker's benefit, and that he occupies it very much as if under military arrest. He has two comfortable rooms, wholly apart from all other prisoners, and furnishes them to suit his own taste. He wears his own crothing, supplies his own food, is allowed wine and beer, does no work performs no menial offices, (these are done for him by an officer of the prison, who acts as Col. Baker's private servant.) has what books and newspapers he likes, writes and recieves etters subject to inspection, and may see his friends between nine in the morning and six in the evening. The same correspondent gives the Army and Navy Gazette as authority for the statement that Col. Baker, immediately upon his conviction, had sent in his resignation, and that this resignation had been accepted. This meant that a man convicted of an infamous crime, and a peculiarly cowardly one, was allowed by the military authorities to retire from the army exactly as any officer might retire. Another paragraph affrmed that the only question the war office had to settle was whether Colonel Baker should be allowed to the value of his commission, some $25,000, or whether, by refusing it, a "crushing fine" should be levied on him in addition to the sentence of the court. Finally after ten days delay, it was nofficially announced that the war office has arrived at a decision that Colonel Baker will be allowed to retire, but will not be allowed the value of his commissions. In defense of this amazing resolution it is urged that Colonel Baker may thus hope for employment in some foreign service, whereas all such chances would

The Failures in San Francisco-the Efforts of the Bank to Keep Its Head up. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug 28.-It is difficult to state the effect of Ralston's failure upon his manufacturing enterprises. It is feared the Kimball manufacturing company will be unable to stand the shock. The Rolling mills are in better condition. The Cornell Watch Factory will be seriously crippled. The effect on the mining stock cannot be estimated as all business in that line will be suspended. Ralston quoted: "I tell you this failure is the result of persistent effort for months to break this

LATER.-The Directors applied to Flood & Obrien on the day of the failure for relief, offering that firm the entire paid up stock of the bank, five millions; also a million and a half in the bank and an additional million to be assessed on the stock-holders; in all seven and a half millions, provided Flood & Obrien would e the liabilities of the bank. The proposition was rejected and the was compelled to suspend. No doubt the liabilities of the bank are fourteen millions, and assets seven millions, which will prob-ably shrink before realized. The condition of the bank was concealed from the directors till Thursday. At a full meeting directors yesterday Ralston entered one asked to resign, which he did. He was ordered to leave the room. The Board was still in session when the drowning of Ralston was announced. The stockholders will lose their stock, and to meet the liabilities will be compelled to stand an assessment of fifty per cent.

The San Francisco Financial Difficulties-A Leading Banker Commits Suicide.

PLYMOUTH, ENGLAND, Aug. 28 .-One of the Coroners Jury in the Royal Yacht collision of inquest announces that all of the jurors favored a verdict of accidental death, but differed as to the blame attaching to individual officers. The affairs of the Bank of California have been put in the hands of an executive committee consisting of Wm. Alvord and Geo. H. Howard.
